

*Defense Contract Management Agency
Dallas Deputy Commander
FEB Strategic Planning Committee-Vice Chair*

---

MR. RODNEY D. MAYO

Executive experience managing operational Contract Administrative Services. Over 30 years' experience in the aeronautical industry working major acquisition programs and life cycle management for Major Defense Acquisition Programs. Strengths in Manufacturing Technology, Supply Chain Long Lead Tails, Quality Control Systems, Acquisition Workforce Development and Industrial Base Oversight. Command experience leading organizations to high performance and continuous improvement. Specialize in mitigation strategies for cost growth and schedule degradation for critical path industrial base suppliers.

Mr. Mayo is currently the Deputy Director of DCMA Dallas where he is responsible for over 12,000 defense contracts valued at $3.6 billion dollars and manage 351 personnel. Mr. Mayo also has served as the Deputy Commander at DCMA Lockheed Martin Fort Worth and managed the oversight of advanced jet fighter production and sustainment. He has held several other roles in DCMA to include the Director of Rotary Wing Sector in Operations where he worked with CMO Commanders.

Serves as the Task Force Chairman for the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce Workforce Development Committee – Collective Impacts for Career Readiness 2015: Member of the Dallas Fort Worth Federal Executive Board. He has held senior leadership positions with private industry responsible for over 200 people in seven countries across the globe. He has worked as the Program manager for Manufacturing and Technology at an organic depot responsible for an $11 million dollar advanced composites and material processing capability stand up.

Mr. Mayo is a graduate of the National Defense University where he studied Operational Contract Support (OCS). He possess a Bachelor of Science, Materials and Metallurgical Engineering, University of Texas El Paso, TX, Master of Science National Security Resourcing, in Washington, DC and is a graduate of the Federal Executive Institute.